

Otto G. Feddern

President/CCO Feddern Financial Consulting Group

Since graduating Phi Kappa Phi, from the University of Louisville in the mid 1960s with a Bachelors of Music, Bachelors of Education, and Masters in Theory and Composition, Otto Feddern has pursued several successful careers.

In the field of education, his analytical, organizational, management, and motivational skills allowed him to develop one of the largest instrumental music departments in the State of Kentucky.

After ten years in education, a sales career was next with a major, national fund raising company for schools and youth sports. Rising to the position of General Sales Manager, he was responsible for 300 salesmen and all of the necessary management, forecasting, recruiting, and development tasks. It was here that he met and married Mina, his wife of 27 years.

Otto entered the financial services industry in the Fall of 1984, and since 1987 has been actively pursuing and developing the ultimate proprietary performance monitoring system for Endowments, Foundations, Taft Hartley and ERISA Plans. The report presents typically complicated statistical calculations in a format that is understandable and useable to non-financial committee members and staff. The majority of the report is presented in graphic format which has been specifically designed to convey statistical information in a clear and definitive manner. The information is easily converted into decisive decision-making facts. In addition to the various systems of analytics, a dynamic team has been assembled to include several Registered Investment Advisors, several computer personnel, and support staff.

He is Past-Chairman of the Board of The dePaul School in Louisville and Member of the Executive Committee, as well as a member of the Board of the Louisville Rotary Club, which awarded him "Rotarian of the Year" for 2002. He is a charter member and founder of the Prospect/Goshen Rotary Club, and was the Governor's special representative to the Louisville Metro Area in 1993, 1994, and 1995. As past original Chairman of Operation Brightside-Downtown, and Board Member of the Louisville Central Area, he received the Distinguished Citizen of Louisville Mayor's Award for two consecutive years in 1991 and 1992 as well as the Community Service Award from the American College of Physicians in 1999. He is also an active member and Treasurer of the Ky FPA (Financial Planning Association) GLI (Louisville Chamber) and OneSouthern Indiana (So. Indiana Chamber).
